News travels fast, and the word is getting around that we commenced our holiday presentation of a Waterbury Watch and Chain.

The present is given to every Cash Purchaser of Goods Amounting to fifty twelve dollars bought—that we could not afford—but with every purchase exceeding this limit, whether it be fit or fifty dollars.

The cost of the watches is but a small percentage on the average amount of the sales; hence the advertisement is less expensive to us than at first might appear.

It will be a pleasure to make so many boys happy, and a Waterbury is not beneath the notice of any man not possessed of a time-piece.

They are first rate watches. If our prices seem high after you have bought an article, you know there is no difficulty about having your money refunded upon return of the article, uninjured. That's our way of guaranteeing our Prices to be as low as those asked anywhere for goods of equal merit.

A Bargain.

WASHINGTON and NEW YORK.

Ladies may read this advertisement who are under the impression that a perfect assortment of really fine goods can only be seen and bought at moderate prices in New York. Apart from the fact that the cost of transport increases the price, the Palais Royal claims to quote prices as low, and in many instances,

LOWER THAN NEW YORK PRICES.

SILKS.
A good illustration occurred Friday, Nov. 19, at a raton of the most reliable and honest New York visitor the Palais Royal "just a shop." Before she left the store she purchased a dress of our $1.50 Black Satin Rhinames, and declared it equal to the $2 goods she purchased in New York less than a month ago. Mr. G. O. Upton, the silk buyer who has had fifteen years' experience in the leading silk houses of New York, will be pleased to prove the authenticity of this statement.

CLOAKS.
In conjunction with our present stock we offer the samples of a leading importer, bought for cash at very low prices. An opportunity is afforded to purchase the finest imported novelties at prices never before quoted. Only thirty-three garments.

Rich Novelties!
Velvete, Flashes, and Satins in combination with Faltie Francaise, Satin Rhinames, Satin Duches, Gros Grain, and Surahs of extra quality. Especially adapted for carriage, dinner, and reception dresses.

The above novelties are identical to those being offered to-day in New York. Being bought of the same manufacturers, and at the same prices, why should not the Palais Royal prices be as low as the New York houses? As a matter of fact, prices are lower, and the reason for it is—we do a STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS, and can afford to sell at a small profit. Houses that do a credit business cannot do so.

A Bargain.

OMITTED.
Our little introduction has to be omitted this time, as our space is limited and our gains plentiful. We are doing our share of trade, but that does not satisfy us, as the season has been so terribly backward that our heavy stock has moved very slowly. We have about six weeks left to the bulk of trade, and that is a very short period to get rid of such stock as we have on hand.

Wraps.
Ladies', Misses', and Children's. We have concluded to give the public the benefit of them now, while they are wanted, rather than wait until later, when the demand has been pretty well supplied. Thirteen lots:
